WHEREAS, Some twenty years ago Dr. Robert Schuller, a native of the State of Iowa, [illegible]

WHEREAS, [illegible]

WHEREAS, [illegible] Cathedral to be [illegible] from people [illegible]

WHEREAS, [illegible] building the Cathedral, are [illegible] missionary purposes around the world, and for the operation of the New Hope Tower, a round-the-clock telephone assistance service for those in distress; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Schuller [illegible] and abroad, containing such [illegible] which he advocates peace of mind through "possibility thinking"--one very important [illegible] of which are motivation and inspiration; and,

WHEREAS, it is the belief of Dr. Schuller and [illegible], as individuals, has a personal motivation to [illegible] his or her life on earth, and that "possibility thinking" will assist in [illegible] all; and,

WHEREAS, we in South Dakota are especially proud of the fact that the musical duo of Herb and Tommy Waldorf, both natives of our State, are regularly featured with Dr. Schuller; and,

WHEREAS, My brother, Tom [illegible], shares the [illegible] teachings of Dr. Robert Schuller; and,

WHEREAS, Dr. Schuller will [illegible] on January 11, 1978, and it is my privilege and pleasure [illegible] to this [illegible];

NOW, THEREFORE, I, [illegible], Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, January 15, 1978 [illegible]

In South Dakota, [illegible]

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota in Pierre, the Capital City, this Ninth day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-eight.

ATTEST:

[signature]

DORNA B. HERBERT, SECRETARY OF STATE

[signature]

RICHARD F. KNEIP, GOVERNOR